

Cape Royal Golf Club

Member Code of Conduct and Separation Guide

A. Any Member whose conduct or the conduct of the Member's family or guests shall be deemed by the Management to be improper or likely to endanger the welfare, safety, harmony or good reputation of the Club, its employees, or its Members, may be reprimanded, suspended, or expelled from the Club without refund of any Initiation Fees or dues.

B. Subject to the requirements stated, the Management shall have full power and authority to fine, suspend or expel any Member, or to take any other appropriate action, for any infraction or conduct, which in the sole discretion of the President or General Manager, warrants imposition of any such penalty. The decision of the President or General Manager shall be final.

C. In the event any person entitled to use the facilities of the Club shall conduct himself in a disorderly or otherwise improper manner while on the premises of the Club, the appropriate Club authority (President, General Manager, Executive Chef, or Head Golf Professional) may in their sole discretion issue a warning to such person or eject him from the premises and forbid him to use the facilities of the Club until the violation has been reviewed by the President, or General Manager and the Board. In such case, a complaint shall be made to the President or General Manager within twenty-four hours after the occurrence of the violation.

D. The President or General Manager shall, at their sole discretion, have the right to fine, suspend or terminate the Membership of any individual for non-payment of any fee, charge, or other indebtedness.

E. No Member shall be suspended or expelled without first being given the privilege of a hearing before the President or General Manager except for suspension or expulsion for non-payment of the Member's Account or other debt to the Club.

F. Complaints by Members concerning other Members' or guests' failure to abide by Club Rules, policies or standards of conduct should be brought to the attention of the President, General Manager, Executive Chef or Head Golf Professional.
